THE WORD OF GOD

OPENING ACCLAMATION

The Book of Common Prayer, page 355

Celebrants Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

all say together

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN OF PRAISE

All glory be to God on high

Hymnal, #421

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrants The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrants Let us pray.

O God, the strength of all who put their trust in you: Mercifully accept our prayers; and because in our weakness we can do nothing good without you, give us the help of your grace, that in keeping your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE INTERIM TIME

all say together

Almighty God, we pray for the people of St. Mary's during this time of transition. May we be genuine in our self-reflection, patient in our discernment, loving in our communion, imaginative about our future, and daring in our faith. As we seek to find, instill in us trust in your loving guidance. As we seek to challenge, unite us in our commitment to serve and to know Christ in each other and the world; As we seek to inspire, fill us with your bountiful spirit. All this we pray, empowered by the love of Christ our Lord. Amen

Deuteronomy 30:15-20

Moses said, “See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. If you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the Lord your God, walking in his ways, and observing his commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the Lord your God, obeying him, and holding fast to him; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.”

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 3:1-9

Brothers and sisters, I could not speak to you as spiritual people, but rather as people of the flesh, as infants in Christ. I fed you with milk, not solid food, for you were not ready for solid food. Even now you are still not ready, for you are still of the flesh. For as long as there is jealousy and quarreling among you, are you not of the flesh, and behaving according to human inclinations? For when one says, “I belong to Paul,” and another, “I belong to Apollos,” are you not merely human? What then is Apollos? What is Paul? Servants through whom you came to believe, as the Lord assigned to each. I planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the growth. So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth. The one who plants and the one who waters have a common purpose, and each will receive wages according to the labor of each. For we are God’s servants, working together; you are God’s field, God’s building.

verses 1, 2 & 4 before the Gospel verse 5 & 6 after the Gospel

Hymnal, #693

THE HOLY GOSPEL

all stand

Matthew 5:21-37

Response after the introduction to the Gospel Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, “You have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not murder’; and ‘whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.’ But I say to you that if you are angry with a brother or sister, you will be liable to judgment; and if you insult a brother or sister, you will be liable to the council; and if you say, ‘You fool,’ you will be liable to the hell of fire. So when you are offering your gift at the altar, if you remember that your brother or sister has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother or sister, and then come and offer your gift. Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are on the way to court with him, or your accuser may hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you will be thrown into prison. Truly I tell you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny. “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lust has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye causes you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to go into hell. “It was also said, ‘Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’ But I say to you that anyone who divorces his wife, except on the ground of unchastity, causes her to commit adultery; and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery. “Again, you have heard that it was said to those of ancient times, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but carry out the vows you have made to the Lord.’ But I say to you, Do not swear at all, either by heaven, for it is the throne of God, or by the earth, for it is his footstool, or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make one hair white or black. Let your word be ‘Yes, Yes’ or ‘No, No’; anything more than this comes from the evil one.”

Response at the end of the Gospel reading Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE CHILDREN'S HOMILY

THE DOXOLOGY

all stand

After the Doxology, the Pre-School class processes out for programs in the nursery.

Praise God from whom all blessings all flow
Praise him all creatures here below
Praise him above ye heavenly host Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

THE CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Celebrants Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

People Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrants Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrants Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrants It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever. Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance. Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing,

SANCTUS

"A Community Mass"
Richard Proulx

After the Sanctus, the people kneel or stand. The Celebrants continues...

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrants and People We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrants continues.....

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and for ever. Amen

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

ALTAR FLOWERS

Altar flowers are given in thanksgiving for the engagement of Andrew McGann, son of Bill & Josie McGann to Susannah Groh.

MUSIC FOR THIS MORNING

Here again this week, our pattern of readings is one that helps us look inwardly and encourages us to follow the commandments. Our anthem this morning is a famous setting by Renaissance composer Thomas Tallis, called "If ye love me." It echoes Jesus' plea to follow him and do just things. Because it is their last Sunday, Deb and Claire helped to choose today's hymns, which reflect their personal sense of ministry and commitment to following God's call wherever it may lead.

-Eric Choate, Interim Director of Music

ATTENTION ALL NEWS-MAKERS!

You may have noticed that we have made some changes in our communication style. The Sunday morning announcements have been incorporated into the Sunday bulletins and our online newsletter, Highlights, is a bit longer. If you would like your announcement to run in both the printed and online news, we are asking that you send your information to Natalie Hala at natalie@smvsf.org. The deadline is still 12:00 p.m. on Tuesdays. Thank you for your cooperation with this change.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Generally during the second semester of Sunday School, lessons center on the life and teachings of Jesus and highlight many of the Gospel readings. Today, we'll do a quick detour to the Old Testament and focus on Moses receiving the 10 Commandments. We'll have mini discussions about the commandments and the reason why we need to have rules. The teachers will then segue to Jesus' summary of the law aka the Great Commandment: "Love God with all your heart and love your neighbor as yourself." If that sounds too weighty, don't worry. We'll work in some Valentines, too.

-Nancy Clark, Sunday School Director

PRAYER REQUEST CARD REVISED

The "Request for Prayer" cards have been slightly revised. Individuals submitting prayer requests now need to indicate they have secured the permission of the person (or that person's family) to place the individual on the prayer list. In addition, the person submitting the request must legibly print his/her name and contact phone or email. The new prayer cards are printed on yellow paper. These changes are being made to protect the privacy of those for whom prayers are being offered. There have been issues recently with individuals being placed on the prayer list who would rather keep their situation or concern private. Hopefully by making these adjustments to the Prayer Request Cards, we will avoid future misunderstandings. The pastoral staff realizes that those submitting prayer requests for others have the best intentions. However we want to ensure that those intentions are affirmed by the person or persons for whom the prayers are being sought. If you have any questions about these changes, please speak with any of the clergy. Thank you.

ST. MARY'S IS EXCITED TO WELCOME YOU TO OUR RECTOR SEARCH PAGE!

The search committee is conducting our initial interviews with a very strong group of candidates after having read through all of their application documents in December and deciding who continued in the process. We are excited to be meeting them virtually each weekend this January, and then will discern who we move forward with in February. At that time we will start scheduling visits in their home parishes during February and March. Continuing on schedule, we will then be able to discern from those visits which 3 or so we move forward to the vestry for their consideration and interviewing. We will prepare information booklets for each candidate in April and forward those to the vestry by May, so they can start their discernment and final interview visits in May/June. We have a report that has been published in the Annual Report.

If you are a parishioner with any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Creighton, Diana or anyone on the search committee on search@smvsf.org or in the courtyard.

If you are a candidate with any questions, please feel free to email us at the candidate address, rectorsearch@smvsf.org.

AN OPPORTUNITY TO SHARE

A SPECIAL EXPERIENCE

Deacon Tim has arranged for a block of 20 tickets for parishioners and friends to attend the play The Christians by 37-year-old Lucas Hnath at the San Francisco Playhouse on Tuesday, February 21, at 7:00 PM. Originally on Broadway it is a powerful, provocative play with a live choir about Christian faith, the tensions that divergent interpretations of Christian dogma and personalities create in a faith community, clergy/parishioner conflict, and the struggle to reconcile and heal. It promises to be an enriching evening and an opportunity for us at St. Mary's, sisters and brothers in Christ, to reflect on our parish's story and our ministry of healing and reconciliation. Tickets are $45 apiece. Playhouse management will seat us where possible in the premium seats. Please RSVP to tim@smvsf.org or 415-921-3665, ext. 352, by Monday noon, February 13.
