THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, who before the passion of your only begotten Son revealed his glory upon the holy mountain: Grant to us that we, beholding by faith the light of his countenance, may be strengthened to bear our cross, and be changed into his likeness from glory to glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE INTERIM TIME all say together

Almighty God, we pray for the people of St. Mary's during this time of transition. May we be genuine in our self-reflection, patient in our discernment, loving in our communion, imaginative about our future, and daring in our faith.

As we seek to find, instill in us trust in your loving guidance.

As we seek to challenge, unite us in our commitment to serve and to know Christ in each other and the world;

As we seek to inspire, fill us with your bountiful spirit.

All this we pray, empowered by the love of Christ our Lord. Amen

Exodus 24:12-18

The Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and wait there; and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction." So Moses set out with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. To the elders he had said, "Wait here for us, until we come to you again; for Aaron and Hur are with you; whoever has a dispute may go to them." Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it for six days; on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the cloud. Now the appearance of the glory of the Lord was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. Moses entered the cloud, and went up on the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

SECOND READING

2 Peter 1:16-21

We did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, "This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased." We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain. So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts. First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Christ upon the mountain peak

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 17:1-9

Response after the introduction to the Gospel Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white. Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!" When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear. But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid." And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone. As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

Response at the end of the Gospel reading Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE DOXOLOGY

After the Doxology, the Pre-School class processes out for programs in the nursery.

Praise God from whom all blessings all flow
Praise him all creatures here below
Praise him above ye heavenly host
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is truly right to glorify you, Father, and to give you thanks; for you alone are God, living and true, dwelling in light inaccessible from before time and for ever. Fountain of life and source of all goodness, you made all things and fill them with your blessing; you created them to rejoice in the splendor of your radiance. Countless throngs of angels stand before you to serve you night and day; and, beholding the glory of your presence, they offer you unceasing praise. Joining with them, and giving voice to every creature under heaven, we acclaim you, and glorify your Name, as we sing,

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.
Blest is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

"A Community Mass"
Richard Proulx

After the Sanctus, the people kneel or stand. The Celebrant continues....

We acclaim you, holy Lord, glorious in power. Your mighty works reveal your wisdom and love. You formed us in your own image, giving the whole world into our care, so that, in obedience to you, our Creator, we might rule and serve all your creatures. When our disobedience took us far from you, you did not abandon us to the power of death. In your mercy you came to our help, so that in seeking you we might find you. Again and again you called us into covenant with you, and through the prophets you taught us to hope for salvation.

Father, you loved the world so much that in the fullness of time you sent your only Son to be our Savior. Incarnate by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, he lived as one of us, yet without sin. To the poor he proclaimed the good news of salvation; to prisoners, freedom; to the sorrowful, joy. To fulfill your purpose he gave himself up to death; and, rising from the grave, destroyed death, and made the whole creation new.

And, that we might live no longer for ourselves, but for him who died and rose for us, he sent the Holy Spirit, his own first gift for those who believe, to complete his work in the world, and to bring to fulfillment the sanctification of all.

When the hour had come for him to be glorified by you, his heavenly Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end; at supper with them he took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Father, we now celebrate this memorial of our redemption. Recalling Christ's death and his descent among the dead, proclaiming his resurrection and ascension to your right hand, awaiting his coming in glory; and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

Celebrant and People We praise you, we bless you,
we give thanks to you,
and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The Celebrant continues.....

Lord, we pray that in your goodness and mercy your Holy Spirit may descend upon us, and upon these gifts, sanctifying them and showing them to be holy gifts for your holy people, the bread of life and the cup of salvation, the Body and Blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Grant that all who share this bread and cup may become one body and one spirit, a living sacrifice in Christ, to the praise of your Name.

Remember, Lord, your one holy catholic and apostolic Church, redeemed by the blood of your Christ. Reveal its unity, guard its faith, and preserve it in peace.

And grant that we may find our inheritance with all the saints who have found favor with you in ages past. We praise you in union with them and give you glory through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and for ever. Amen

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All those who wish to are invited to hold hands during this prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

We are happy to add you to our email list so you can keep up with the programs, activities, and news of St. Mary's.

GUEST PREACHER

We welcome The Rev. Hollinshead "Lin" T. Knight as guest preacher at all services this morning. Lin Knight was born in Philadelphia, is a graduate of Yale and the Episcopal Theological School, served three years in the Navy, served three small missions in Idaho, then moved to St. Luke's in San Francisco to serve as associate rector from 1964 to 1973. He was called to serve as Vicar and then Rector of St. Aidan's Episcopal Church in the Diamond Heights area of San Francisco from 1973 to 1984. From 1984 to 1995, Fr. Lin served as Dean of St. Andrew's Cathedral in Honolulu. Fr. Lin has served 12 interim positions in the Diocese of California, Jackson Hole, Wyoming, and in the Diocese of Oregon. Among those positions, Fr. Lin served as interim rector at St. Mary's from 2011 to 2012.

MUSIC FOR THIS MORNING

This Sunday marks the last Sunday after the Epiphany and a transitional point toward lent. The choir will sing American composer Randal Thompson's great work, "Alleluia." In singing a meditation on that word, we fill our souls with praise and thanksgiving before entering into the penitential season of Lent.

-Eric Choate, Interim Director of Music

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Turning water into wine—Jesus' first miracle. Today in Sunday School we'll visit the little town of Cana, prepare to see a wedding and learn why the bride's father would have been deeply chagrined had the good wine run out at the wedding festivities. Enter Mary and Jesus and the day is saved. What does this act of empathy and kindness show us, teach us about Jesus? The children will learn about weddings then and now and create a sample of the kind of wedding gift a Jewish bride in Palestine might have received.

-Nancy Clark, Sunday School Director

SHROVE TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 28

It's hard to believe but Lent is almost upon us, which means we'll be gathering for one more evening of fun and fellowship before entering into this contemplative and self-reflective season. Everyone is welcome to a festive Shrove Tuesday supper on Tuesday, February 28th in the Great Room. Supper begins at 6:30 p.m. We need volunteers to help with set-up, cooking, and clean-up. Please contact Amy Cebrian if you'd like to sign up or have any questions amycebrian@gmail.com.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICES

The Lenten season begins on Wednesday, March 1 with Eucharist services and the imposition of ashes at 7:00 a.m., 12 noon and 7:00 p.m. Ashes are an ancient symbol of penitence. Since the Middle Ages, it has become the custom to begin Lent, the season of preparation for Easter, by being marked with ash in the sign of the cross. Hence the first day of the season came to be known as "Ash Wednesday." The reminder that "we are dust" turns our attention to the creative power of God, and God's ability to heal the brokenness in our lives when we offer that brokenness to God. This turning to God is the work of Lent. Consider expanding your spiritual life and inquiry during this penitential season by attending the weekly Wednesday morning Eucharist service at 7:00 a.m. and the five – week Wednesday evening Lenten Study Series. Please see the Lenten brochure for details.

LENTEN CARBON FAST

With the season of Lent quickly approaching, Bishop Marc Andrus is inviting all members of the Diocese of California to join him in a Lenten 'carbon fast' — a prayerful effort to reduce daily actions that damage God's creation. For example, Bishop Marc plans to walk or bike to work each day, one staff member of the Diocese will be giving up morning ride-share to take public transit, and another is committing to a 'carbon tithe' to offset the cost of planting new trees in hurricane-ravaged parts of Haiti. You can find many inspirational resources and ideas for your carbon fast through Interfaith Power & Light, the Episcopal Church Foundation, and the Anglican Communion Environmental Network.

2017 LENTEN SERIES.

LIVING THE WAY OF THE CROSS FROM THE HISTORICAL JESUS TO THE COSMIC CHRIST

Join Bishop Marc Andrus, Fr. Jeremy Clark-King and Fr. Don Brown for the Lenten series on Wednesday evenings starting on March 8 at 6:00 p.m. in the Great Room. The series will continue for each Wednesday evening of Lent. The five-week series is designed for all parishioners who would like to know more about Lent, the meanings inherent in the Stations of the Cross, and the traditions that surround our observances and religious practices during Holy Week. The series is designed to challenge us to develop new practices based on ancient teachings and lean into new cosmology, the stations of the cosmic cross. The series includes a light soup supper. If you have friends who want to know more about faith practices in the Episcopal Church, please invite them to attend with you.

-Natalie Hala

ADD LENT MADNESS TO YOUR PERSONAL PRACTICE

If you are hooked on hoops or just joyous with Jesus, you may want to add Lent Madness to your personal Lenten practice. An online outreach program of Forward Movement, which publishes the devotional Forward Day by Day, Lent Madness replicates the format of the annual NCAA basketball tournament, marketed as March Madness, in order to explore the good news of two thousand years of holy women and men. On Ash Wednesday, March 1st, in a veritable bacchanal of brackets, 32 saints will pair off against each other in head to head competition. Through online voting, the first round will be winnowed to the Saintly 16, then to the Elate Eight, and then the Faithful Four. The final two will then go head to head to win the coveted Golden Halo. The brackets are posted in the copy room at the church, or go to www.lentmadness.org to participate. Lent Madness may not make you a better Christian, but it may result in a more informed one. It is a great way to trick your mind into enriching your soul.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR JIM ANDERSON

A memorial service for Jim Anderson will be held on Sunday, March 12 at 2:00 p.m. here at St. Mary's. Do it all or just enjoy sitting with a book, basking in the beauty of the wine country. The registration costs include comfortable lodging, all meals, crafts and other supervised activities for the kids, and entertainment for all. Registration forms will be available at www.smvsf.org and in future bulletins. Look for more details in coming announcements. The deadline to sign up is May 12th at noon. We also need volunteers to help at the Ranch; please contact Amy Cebrian at amycebrian@gmail.com if you can help. We have loved going for years and hope to see you at the Ranch!
