PRELUDE

Prelude in C-Major

Johann Sebastian Bach
1685-1750

OPENING ACCLAMATION

The Book of Common Prayer, page 299

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen!
 People The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia.

Celebrant There is one Body and one Spirit
 People There is one hope in God's call to us.

Celebrant One Lord, one faith, one Baptism
 People One God and Father of all!

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
 People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, at creation your spirit hovered over the ancient deep in which all life was born. In the waters of baptism we are recreated as your children. Bless all oceans and waters; Let your Spirit come and renew the face of the earth. Save us from selfish use of what you have given so that men and women everywhere may give you thanks, through the Eternal Word spoken eternally by God, whose Spirit fills all things and makes us whole. Amen.

GLORIA

Harold Darke

sung by St. Mary's Parish Choir

FIRST READING

all sit

Job 11:7-9, 12:7-10

Can you find out the deep things of God?
 Can you find out the limit of the Almighty?
 It is higher than heaven—what can you do?
 Deeper than Sheol—what can you know?
 Its measure is longer than the earth,
 and broader than the sea.

But ask the animals, and they will teach you;
 the birds of the air, and they will tell you;

ask the plants of the earth, and they will teach you;
and the fish of the sea will declare to you.
Who among all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this?
In his hand is the life of every living thing and the breath of every human being.

Reader     The Word of the Lord
People     Thanks be to God.

PSALM

sung by St. Mary's Parish Choir

T. Norris
1741-1790

SECOND READING

Adlai Stevenson

We travel together, passengers on a little spaceship, dependent on its vulnerable reserves of air and soil; all committed for our safety to its security and peace; preserved from annihilation only by the care, the work, and, I will say, the love we give our fragile craft. We cannot maintain it half fortunate, half miserable, half confident, half despairing, half slave to the ancient enemies of man, half free in a liberation of resources undreamed of until this day. No craft, no crew can travel safely with such vast contradictions. On their resolution depends the survival of us all.

Reader     Here ends the reading.

John 20:19-31

Response after the Deacon introduces the Gospel     Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

all stand

BCP, page 367

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues....

Celebrant God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.

People Glory to you for ever and ever.

Celebrant At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

People By your will they were created and have their being.

Celebrant From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

People Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Celebrant Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

Celebrant And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

sung by St. Mary's Parish Choir

The people stand or kneel, as the Celebrant continues...

The Celebrant continues....

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord. On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

People We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Celebrant Lord God of our Fathers: God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

People Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Celebrant Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

CREATION CARE AND BAPTISMS TODAY

Since 1970, Earth Day (this year on Saturday, April 22) has been an annual event for people around the world to celebrate the earth and renew our commitment to building a safer, healthier and cleaner world for all of us. In this Sunday's combined Second Sunday of Easter, Creation Care and Baptism liturgy, we are reminded that praising the beauty of God's creation is an essential part of our ongoing faith journey and worship experience. Today we will celebrate new life through the sacrament of Baptism and be reminded to embrace all of God's creation, to recommit to responsible stewardship and to pray for "this fragile earth, our Island home." —Natalie Hala

VISIT THE CREATION CARE

MINISTRY TABLE AFTER ALL SERVICES

Stop by the Creation Care Ministry table after this morning's services to learn more about how to become involved in Faith Climate Action. Your Senators need to hear from you about your concerns for the climate. You can pick up postcards at the table to send to Senator Diane Feinstein and Senator Kamala Harris to urge them to consider the costs to our country and climate if they weaken the agencies and laws that protect the environment. You may fill in your name and the Creation Care Ministry will send them to the Senators on your behalf. Also, you may fill in the "I care about the climate because....." sheets and the Creation Care Ministry will with post them (w/o) names on Facebook.

—Anna Sylvester, Creation Care Ministry

SUNDAY SCHOOL

He is Risen--and indeed in Sunday School classes today we'll review the story of the very first Easter in far away Jerusalem. Projects featuring eggs, lilies, butterflies, and lambs will promote discussions of Easter symbols and their meaning. Then, because this is Earth Day, we'll also talk about what it means to be good stewards of creation. What are you doing at home to keep Mother Earth safe and healthy?

—Nancy Clark, Sunday School Director

HEIFER UPDATE

Big thanks to all who engaged in Courtyard Commerce several weeks ago. The 5th and 6th graders, promoters of the plant and bake sale, raised $532 for the Heifer cause. That, by the way, is enough to buy a real Heifer for a needy family. Please remember to return Heifer Collection Boxes in the next several weeks. We hope to dispatch our combined contribution to Heifer International by mid-May. -Nancy Clark, Sunday School Director

YOUTH GROUP

Tonight: Middle School Youth Group (6th-9th graders) will be meeting on Sunday, April 23 from 5:30-7:30 for discussion, games, and food. Friends are always welcome!

April 30: High School Youth Group (9th-12th graders) will be meeting on Sunday, April 30 from 5:30-7:30 for fellowship, discussion, food, and fun. Bring a friend! Parents: we are looking for someone to provide dinner for both April Youth Groups. Please contact Mike at mike@smvsf.org if you can do it!

May 7: Youth Group Bowling Adventure Night! All 6th-12th graders are invited to come bowling at Presidio Bowl. Bring $10 to defray costs, and other money for snacks or dinner. Friends are always welcome to participate! A special prize goes to anyone who can beat Mike's score (Mike is not a particularly good bowler)!

OTHER CREATION CARE ACTIVITIES

IN THE AREA

Gather with faith communities from across the Bay Area at the People's Climate March in Oakland on Saturday, April 29. Procession around Lake Merritt begins at 3:30 p.m.

-Anna Sylvester, Creation Care Ministry

EASTER CELEBRATIONS AT ST. MARY'S

Easter services were well attended and even with the rain, spirits were high. Several people observed that we had a large number of younger families and parents with infants in attendance. Providing a bit of food following each service was also very well received. On behalf of all of us who love St. Mary's, I offer my thanks to the many groups and individuals who worked long hours in order to make our Easter celebrations so very lovely. We were blessed.

-Fr. Don Brown

REBUILDING TOGETHER

Do you like to help those in need? Want to put words into action? Join St. Mary's on Saturday, April 29 for National Rebuilding Day! On that day, teams of volunteers collect at sites throughout the country and San Francisco to provide free repairs and cleanup for seniors living at home and for non-profit agencies in need of TLC. St. Mary the Virgin has sponsored one of these projects in cooperation with St. James Episcopal Church for the past 14 years, and we will again this year! If you are interested please send an email to David Sullivan at:

OUR CHRISTIAN CALL TO IMMIGRANTS

"For I was . . . a stranger and you welcomed me."

(Matthew 25:35)

Most of us know and/or employ immigrants, many of whom may be in the process of documenting their resident status. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agents are summarily removing immigrants from their homes, workplaces, and even schools, often without warrant or criminal cause. Increasingly, people are being deported who have been working legally within the immigration system for years, even decades. Deportations destroy families and leave many without income, support, or hope. Fortunately, Faith in Action Bay Area provides organizational leadership and personal tools for bearing witness with those who sojourn among us. The information rack in the narthex holds by-lingual instructions on the Constitutional rights and legal protections of immigrants. Take as many as you need, and share them with whomever you think would benefit. Put the Emergency Response hotline number on your phone and share it broadly: 415-200-1548. In case of an imminent action, call this number, and someone will stay on the line throughout the crisis. Train as a First Responder to be present with people at times of ICE interventions. Volunteer to accompany a person and family through the legal and bureaucratic morass of immigration. For more information on these and other opportunities, contact rapidresponse@faithinactionba.org or St. Mary's Faith in Action team members, the Rev. Paula Nesbitt, Margaret Stafford, Kathleen Murray, and David Crosson.
