Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE INTERIM TIME all pray together

Acts 17:22-31

Paul stood in front of the Areopagus and said, “Athenians, I see how extremely religious you are in every way. For as I went through the city and looked carefully at the objects of your worship, I found among them an altar with the inscription, ‘To an unknown god.’ What therefore you worship as unknown, this I proclaim to you. The God who made the world and everything in it, he who is Lord of heaven and earth, does not live in shrines made by human hands, nor is he served by human hands, as though he needed anything, since he himself gives to all mortals life and breath and all things. From one ancestor he made all nations to inhabit the whole earth, and he allotted the times of their existence and the boundaries of the places where they would live, so that they would search for God and perhaps grope for him and find him—though indeed he is not far from each one of us. For ‘In him we live and move and have our being’; as even some of your own poets have said, ‘For we too are his offspring.’

Since we are God's offspring, we ought not to think that the deity is like gold, or silver, or stone, an image formed by the art and imagination of mortals. While God has overlooked the times of human ignorance, now he commands all people everywhere to repent, because he has fixed a day on which he will have the world judged in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and of this he has given assurance to all by raising him from the dead."

SECOND READING

1 Peter 3:13-22

Now who will harm you if you are eager to do what is good? But even if you do suffer for doing what is right, you are blessed. Do not fear what they fear, and do not be intimidated, but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord. Always be ready to make your defense to anyone who demands from you an accounting for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and reverence. Keep your conscience clear, so that, when you are maligned, those who abuse you for your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. For it is better to suffer for doing good, if suffering should be God's will, than to suffer for doing evil. For Christ also suffered for sins once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, in which also he went and made a proclamation to the spirits in prison, who in former times did not obey, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, during the building of the ark, in which a few, that is, eight persons, were saved through water. And baptism, which this prefigured, now saves you-- not as a removal of dirt from the body, but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, with angels, authorities, and powers made subject to him.

John 14:15-21

Response after the Deacon introduces the Gospel Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you." "I will not leave you orphaned; I am coming to you. In a little while the world will no longer see me, but you will see me; because I live, you also will live. On that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. They who have my commandments and keep them are those who love me; and those who love me will be loved by my Father, and I will love them and reveal myself to them."

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

all stand

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
 ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The people stand or kneel, as the Celebrant continues...

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

remain standing

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

MUSIC FOR THIS SUNDAY

This morning the choir will sing Harold Darke's setting of the Mass; We have been using this joyful setting throughout Eastertide as a way of lifting up the feast of the Resurrection, which we observe every Sunday in the Christian year, with greater emphasis during the season of Easter. The anthem we will sing by Thomas Tallis, a foremost English Renaissance composer, comes directly from St. John's gospel, wherein Jesus calls us to be his Apostles. In my mind's eye, the Gospel of St. John is one in which we are invited into the profound love of God, and this motive appears frequently and distinctly in this particular Gospel. The hymns we sing this morning were very simply chosen to echo this call to love one another and to love God as God has loved us.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Because this is the weekend of the Parish Retreat we're missing a few Sunday School teachers. For that reason we'll have a special activity in the Great Room. The Pre-School children will go to their classroom as usual with no changes at all--same time, same place. The kindergarten and first through sixth graders will go to the Great Room at the usual dismissal time for a batch of activities led by Lisa Reynolds.

Reminder: There will be no Sunday School classes next week, Memorial Day weekend.

FAITH IN ACTION UPDATES

How do you feel called to live out your faith in the world? How should St. Mary's engage with the community around us? What is keeping you up at night? The St. Mary's Faith in Action team invites you to join one of our exploration groups to engage with the above questions and get to know each other more deeply. These groups are part of our congregation-wide discernment process to help shape our work with our community. We are doing this in partnership with the interfaith organization Faith in Action, which guides congregations in their own explorations and facilitates community engagement. If you missed attending a session but would like to know more, please email Margaret Stafford at mpstafford@gmail.com. We look forward to this exploration process!

BIKE/WALK TO CHURCH MAY 28

On Sunday, May 28 St. Mary's will join other faith communities in the Bay Area marking "Walk & Bike to Worship" activities taking place for several days at the end of May and the first week of June. We will announce this blessing on a banner on the side of the church and hopefully some of our neighbors will join us for this service of blessings. We will be blessing bikes, riders and walkers at all three Sunday services.

This is open to adults as well as children. I hope many of you who bike will either ride your bike or transport it to St. Mary's (since many of you live too far away to actually ride to church). Please feel it is perfectly fine to wear your biking apparel to church on that Sunday when we will bless bikes, riders and walkers of all ages. Children can bring their bikes or tricycles or scooters.

Those of you who are walkers are also encouraged to come in your walking attire.

I am looking for some additional volunteers to help with logistics on the 28th at the 8 am and 11 am services. If you'd be willing to help please email me at don@smvsf.org and I'll contact you. -Fr. Don Brown

SAN FRANCISCO INTERFAITH

RAMADAN IFTAR DINNER

On Thursday, June 1, at 7:00 p.m. at Calvary Presbyterian Church on Fillmore our parish will be co-sponsoring, along with Calvary and other neighboring faith communities, the annual San Francisco Ramadan Interfaith Iftar dinner. It is an enriching opportunity to be in community with our Muslim, Christian, Jewish, and Buddhist sisters and brothers and to help celebrate the Iftar dinner which breaks the daily fast during the Muslim holy month of Ramadan. Delicious Iftar food will be served, and we will have an opportunity to meet others from different faiths. The evening will also feature a presentation on Ramadan and its importance to the Muslim faithful. Last year, ten parishioners from St. Mary the Virgin attended the event. It was a memorable evening of community and interfaith understanding for all who attended. We're hoping that even more parishioners from St. Mary's will attend and have a similar experience this year!

There is no charge to attend. Please RSVP at pacificainstitute-sf.eventbrite.com no later than May 29! If you have any questions, please contact Deacon Tim Smith at tim@smvsf.org or 415.921.3665, ext. 352. -Deacon Tim Smith

NEWCOMER RECEPTION

On Sunday, June 11, between 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Deacon Tim Smith and his wife Ilia will be hosting a reception for newcomers at their house at 945 Bay St., San Francisco. This will be a special opportunity for newcomers in an intimate and casual setting to become acquainted with other newcomers, members of the clergy, and other parishioners and to learn more about the parish and its ministries in the community. If you're not sure whether you are still a newcomer, please come anyway! Children are welcome! Parking is available in the neighborhood. Please RSVP at your earliest convenience but no later than Sunday, June 4, to Deacon Tim at tim@smvsf.org. If you have questions, please contact any member of the clergy. -Deacon Tim Smith

VISITING CHOIR FROM CAMBRIDGE

We are very excited to be hosting the Chapel Choir of Selwyn College, Cambridge this summer, when they will be singing a choral Mass for us and combine with our own Parish Choir for an evensong. It will be such a special exchange and a real treat for us to hear one of the absolute finest choirs in the OxBridge system. We are still looking for housing for about ten students for four nights. It doesn't involve much at all- a few meals, a clean bed, and a ride to and from pick up and drop off locations each day.

They will be here the nights of July 13-16. If you have a spare room and can take on a couple students, it would be very much appreciated. I can speak from personal experience that this is a wonderful exchange for both the students and the hosts. Please consider this opportunity, and don't hesitate to call with any questions. 415.921.3665 x 310 or email eric@smvsf.org.

OUR FOOD BASKET

Our food basket, located in the Narthex, is always "open for business." When you grocery shop or clean out your pantry shelf, keep in mind that many of our community service organizations depend upon donations of non-perishable food items to prepare and feed folks who are in need. The items are delivered to reputable agencies such as St. Paulus Lutheran Church, Larkin St. Youth, food banks and other community-based programs. St. Mary's knows how to reach out, and your generosity is doubled when given so freely to others in need. Thank you! -Deacon Nancy Bryan
