People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, whose Son Jesus is the good shepherd of thy people; Grant that when we hear his voice we may know him who calleth us each by name, and follow where he doth lead; who, with thee and the Holy Spirit, liveth and reigneth, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE INTERIM TIME all say together

O Loving God, giver of all good things, be present with us and our vestry as we seek our next Rector. Lovingly guide them as they select a faithful pastor, patient teacher and wise councilor to lead us in the way of your Son. Instill in all of us a vision of a family of faithful servants that, guided by your Holy Spirit, is renewed by hope, united in love, and joyful in pursuing our mission here on earth. In the name of the risen Christ, our mediator and our redeemer, we pray. Amen.

Acts 2:42-47

Those who had been baptized devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Dominus regit me

The Lord is my shepherd; *

I shall not be in want.

He makes me lie down in green pastures *

and leads me beside still waters.

He revives my soul *

and guides me along right pathways for his Name's sake.

Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I shall fear no evil; *

for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *

you have anointed my head with oil, and my cup is running over.

Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, * and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

SECOND READING

1 Peter 2:19-25

It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval.

For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps. "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth."

When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

People Thanks be to God.

Response after the Deacon introduces the Gospel Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus said, "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers." Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly."

Response at the end of the Gospel reading Praise be to thee, O Christ.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Leader Risen Christ, in the hope of the resurrection we pray.

Brief silence to collect prayers.

Leader We pray for the Church: direct its leaders and enliven us for its mission.

People Christ is risen, that we all might be one.

Leader We pray for the world: lead us and every people into ways of justice and peace.

People Christ is risen, that all may act with integrity and courage.

Leader Creator of all, awaken in us a sense of wonder for the earth and all that is in it.

People Christ is risen, that the purposes of all creation might be fulfilled.

Leader We pray for this community: Give grace to all whose lives are linked with ours.

People Christ is risen, that we might serve and love one another as God loves us.

Leader We remember those who have died and those who mourn:

The Deacon offers prayers and thanksgivings from the St. Mary's Prayer List and invites the congregation to add theirs.

Deacon God of Promise and God of Hope, who through thy great mercy has granted us new birth through the death and resurrection of thy Son, Jesus Christ, we praise thy wonderful name! You have granted us new strength to endure all things through faith in Christ our risen King, we praise thy wonderful name!
Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING, EUCHARISTIC PRAYER II all stand

BCP, page 340

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And with thy spirit.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them up unto the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

People It is meet and right so to do.

The celebrant continues...

Celebrant It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life. Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

SANCTUS

BCP, page 341

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts: Heaven and earth are full of thy glory. Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High. Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

After the Sanctus the People stand or kneel as able, as the Celebrant continues...

All glory be to thee, Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for that thou, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption; who made there, by his one oblation of himself once offered, a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction, for the sins of the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me." Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink ye all of this; for this is my Blood of the New Testament, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

BCP, page 336

All those who wish to are invited to hold hands during this prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. MUSIC FOR THIS MORNING

This Sunday we hear the familiar Psalm 23, which likens the Lord to a shepherd. The choir will sing Bobby McFerrin's Psalm setting of this text. Bobby McFerrin is an American jazz vocalist who has strong ties to the Episcopal Church. During the Offertory, the choir will sing an anthem by Virgil Thompson which paraphrases this text. Virgil Thompson was an American composer whose career spanned most of the 20th century.

-Eric Choate, Interim Director of Music

SUNDAY SCHOOL

"Caring for Others" "Being Cared For"
Those are the themes for Sunday School classes this week. The Pre-school and Kindergarteners will hear the story of the Good Shepherd who knows the sheep of his flock by name, watches over and cares for them. The 1st through 4th graders will hear the parable of the Good Samaritan with its too busy, too pure to stop and help travelers and the unlikely hero, the Samaritan, who stopped in his tracks to aid the wounded man on the road to Jericho. There is plenty to talk about and good lessons to learn in both stories. The 5th and 6th graders meanwhile will be at work in the parish kitchen baking the bread to be used in next week's Communion service.

-Nancy Clark, Sunday School Director

YOUTH GROUP

Tonight, May 7: Youth Group Bowling Adventure Night! All 6th-12th graders are invited to come bowling at Presidio Bowl. Bring $10 to defray costs, and other money for snacks or dinner. Friends are always welcome to participate! A special prize goes to anyone who can beat Mike's score (Mike is not a particularly good bowler)!

2017 ANNUAL PARISH RETREAT

The Annual Parish retreat at the Bishop's Ranch in Healdsburg is coming May 19. We're thrilled that Rev. Lin Knight will be joining us again this year and will lead a program on Saturday morning teeing off our Friday night film Inside Out. For those of you who have not had the chance to come on the retreat before, this much-loved tradition is a time for parishioners of all ages, from all services, to come together and enjoy fun and fellowship. There is hiking, swimming and frolicking in the wonderful saltwater pool, worshiping in the ranch's lovely historic chapel, quiet contemplation, doing crafts, playing games, s'mores by the campfire, time to enjoy the town of Healdsburg or its surrounding vineyards, and yes, some fellowship and community! Do it all or just enjoy sitting with a book, basking in the beauty of the wine country. The registration costs include comfortable lodging, high quality wholesome meals, supervised activities for children, and a wonderful time. Check in opens up around 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 19th and the retreat wraps up after lunch on Sunday, May 21st. The deadline to sign up is May 12th at noon (but we'd love to get a headcount sooner to help with planning). Register at the smvsf.org website. Please contact Amy Cebrian at amycebrian@gmail.com with any questions. We have loved going for years and hope to see you at the Ranch!

FAITH IN ACTION UPDATES

How do you feel called to live out your faith in the world? How should St. Mary's engage with the community around us? What is keeping you up at night? The St. Mary's Faith in Action team invites you to join one of our exploration groups to engage with the above questions and get to know each other more deeply. These groups are part of our congregation-wide discernment process to help shape our work with our community. We are doing this in partnership with the interfaith organization Faith in Action, which guides congregations in their own explorations and facilitates community engagement. Come join us at one or more of the following sessions today at 10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (after the 9:00 am service) in the vestry room. Childcare will be available. May 20 at the retreat (details coming soon) If you would like to attend a session, please email Margaret Stafford at mpstafford@gmail.com so we know to expect you.
