Acts 2:42-47

Those who had been baptized devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, because many wonders and signs were being done by the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

SECOND READING

1 Peter 2:19-25

It is a credit to you if, being aware of God, you endure pain while suffering unjustly. If you endure when you are beaten for doing wrong, what credit is that? But if you endure when you do right and suffer for it, you have God's approval. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example, so that you should follow in his steps. "He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth."

When he was abused, he did not return abuse; when he suffered, he did not threaten; but he entrusted himself to the one who judges justly. He himself bore our sins in his body on the cross, so that, free from sins, we might live for righteousness; by his wounds you have been healed. For you were going astray like sheep, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 10:1-10

Response after the Deacon introduces the Gospel Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers." Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly."

Response at the end of the Gospel reading Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company from heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Hymnal, S-128

The people stand or kneel, as the Celebrant continues...

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith.

All Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

MUSIC FOR THIS MORNING

This Sunday we hear the familiar Psalm 23, which likens the Lord to a shepherd. The choir will sing Bobby McFerrin's Psalm setting of this text. Bobby McFerrin is an American jazz vocalist who has strong ties to the Episcopal Church. During the Offertory, the choir will sing an anthem by Virgil Thompson which paraphrases this text. Virgil Thompson was an American composer whose career spanned most of the 20th century.

-Eric Choate, Interim Director of Music

SUNDAY SCHOOL

"Caring for Others" "Being Cared For"
Those are the themes for Sunday School classes this week. The Pre-school and Kindergarteners will hear the story of the Good Shepherd who knows the sheep of his flock by name, watches over and cares for them. The 1st through 4th graders will hear the parable of the Good Samaritan with its too busy, too pure to stop and help travelers and the unlikely hero, the Samaritan, who stopped in his tracks to aid the wounded man on the road to Jericho. There is plenty to talk about and good lessons to learn in both stories. The 5th and 6th graders meanwhile will be at work in the parish kitchen baking the bread to be used in next week's Communion service.

-Nancy Clark, Sunday School Director

YOUTH GROUP

Tonight, May 7: Youth Group Bowling Adventure Night! All 6th-12th graders are invited to come bowling at Presidio Bowl. Bring $10 to defray costs, and other money for snacks or dinner. Friends are always welcome to participate! A special prize goes to anyone who can beat Mike's score (Mike is not a particularly good bowler)!

2017 ANNUAL PARISH RETREAT

The Annual Parish retreat at the Bishop's Ranch in Healdsburg is coming May 19. We're thrilled that Rev. Lin Knight will be joining us again this year and will lead a program on Saturday morning teeing off our Friday night film Inside Out. For those of you who have not had the chance to come on the retreat before, this much-loved tradition is a time for parishioners of all ages, from all services, to come together and enjoy fun and fellowship. There is hiking, swimming and frolicking in the wonderful saltwater pool, worshiping in the ranch's lovely historic chapel, quiet contemplation, doing crafts, playing games, s'mores by the campfire, time to enjoy the town of Healdsburg or its surrounding vineyards, and yes, some fellowship and community! Do it all or just enjoy sitting with a book, basking in the beauty of the wine country. The registration costs include comfortable lodging, high quality wholesome meals, supervised activities for children, and a wonderful time. Check in opens up around 5:00 p.m. on Friday, May 19th and the retreat wraps up after lunch on Sunday, May 21st. The deadline to sign up is May 12th at noon (but we'd love to get a headcount sooner to help with planning). Register at the smvsf.org website. Please contact Amy Cebrian at amycebrian@gmail.com with any questions. We have loved going for years and hope to see you at the Ranch!

FAITH IN ACTION UPDATES

How do you feel called to live out your faith in the world? How should St. Mary's engage with the community around us? What is keeping you up at night? The St. Mary's Faith in Action team invites you to join one of our exploration groups to engage with the above questions and get to know each other more deeply. These groups are part of our congregation-wide discernment process to help shape our work with our community. We are doing this in partnership with the interfaith organization Faith in Action, which guides congregations in their own explorations and facilitates community engagement. Come join us at one or more of the following sessions today at 10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. (after the 9:00 am service) in the vestry room. Childcare will be available. May 20 at the retreat (details coming soon) If you would like to attend a session, please email Margaret Stafford at mpstafford@gmail.com so we know to expect you. The items are delivered to reputable agencies such as St. Paulus Lutheran Church, Larkin St. Youth, food banks and other community-based programs. St. Mary’s knows how to reach out, and your generosity is doubled when given so freely to others in need. Thank you! –Deacon Nancy Bryan
