Almighty God, we pray for the people of St. Mary's during this time of transition.

May we be genuine in our self-reflection, patient in our discernment, loving in our communion, imaginative about our future, and daring in our faith.

As we seek to find, instill in us trust in your loving guidance.

As we seek to challenge, unite us in our commitment to serve and to know Christ in each other and the world;

As we seek to inspire, fill us with your bountiful spirit.

All this we pray, empowered by the love of Christ our Lord. Amen

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Celebrant Come, Holy Spirit, and show us the way of peace, the well-worn way made by Jesus, your son; your servant Francis; and so many other holy people. Bind us into the company of your saints, as we pray:

People Make us instruments of your peace;

Celebrant where there is hatred

People let us sow love;

Celebrant and where there is sadness,

Celebrant O Divine Maker, Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; To be understood as to understand; To be loved, as to love;

All for it is in giving that we receive,

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,

And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of Christ be with you always.

People And also with you.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

HOLY COMMUNION

This Eucharistic prayer was written in 2016 by members and clergy of St. Mary's.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Sing of Mary, pure and lowly

Skinner Chavez-Melo

b. 1944

St. Mary's Summer Choir

arr. Mark Wings

Sing of Mary, pure and lowly, Virgin mother undefiled;
Sing of God's own Son most holy, Who became her little child.
Fairest child of fairest mother, God the Lord who came to earth,
Word made flesh, our very brother, Takes our nature by his birth.

Sing of Jesus, son of Mary, In the home at Nazareth.
Toil and labor cannot weary Love enduring unto death.
Constant was the love he gave her, Though he went forth from her side,
Forth to preach, and heal, and suffer, Till on Calvary he died.

Glory be to God the Father; Glory be to God the Son;
Glory be to God the Spirit; Glory to the Three in One.
From the heart of blessed Mary, From all saints the song ascends,
And the Church the strain re-echoes Unto earth's remotest ends.

text: Roland Ford Palmer (b.1891)

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is truly right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times in all places give you thanks and praise, for you created the world for your own joy and for all that has life, and through the power of the Holy Spirit have made us a new people shining with your light. Therefore we praise your name and join in the unending hymn of all your saints:

SANCTUS

Hymnal, S-124

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

Holy, loving, creating, and wounded God:

In the beginning, your breath gave us life.

By our own will, we separated from you and chose to live in separation from each other and from your creation.

Yet in your compassion, you chose to become fully human

in your son, Jesus, the Christ,

and you were born, lived, worked, loved, wept, and died as one of us.

Through him, you taught us how to heal our brokenness and pledged that we will be one with you again.

As one of us, Jesus wept human tears at what he had to suffer.

And, as one of us, he chose to obey your will

and died upon the cross for our sake and for the sake of your creation.

On the night in which he was betrayed, Jesus took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to his friends, saying, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this to remember me."

After supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you. This cup is my blood of the new promise, poured out for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this to remember me."

Celebrant Gracious God, we recall the radiant life, passion and suffering of your Son, Jesus Christ, and his resurrection and ascension into heaven. We look forward to his coming again. Gather us by this holy sacrament and make us one through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and friend.

All Send your Holy Spirit, we pray, upon these gifts of bread and wine.
Send your Holy Spirit upon us, that we may recognize each other as members of the same body,
Christ's hands and feet and heart,
sent for the healing of the world.

Celebrant Open our hearts to you.
Help us to see you everywhere.
Guide us to deliver the kingdom to others
with goodness, generosity, and bold ambition.
Acting as one body, may we astonish you with our love.
Accept these prayers and praises, our creator and source, through Jesus Christ, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, we give honor, glory, and worship. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

remain standing

BCP, page 364

It is traditional at St. Mary's to hold hands during this prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

WORDS AT THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant As we break this bread, we remember those who have no bread: the starving and the homeless, and especially the children of this world who are living in poverty. We pray that one day we will learn to care for this planet so it can provide for all living things and people.
