HOLY COMMUNION

This Eucharistic prayer was written in 2016 by members and clergy of St. Mary's.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM      You, living Christ, our eyes behold      Michael Fleming
St. Mary's Summer Choir      1928-2006

You, living Christ, our eyes behold, amid your church appearing,
all girt about your breast with gold
and bright apparel wearing;
your countenance is burning light,
a sun resplendent in its might:
Lord Christ, we see your glory.

Your glorious feet have sought and found
your own of every nation;
with everlasting voice you sound
the call of our salvation;
your eyes of flame still search and scan
the whole outspreading realm of man:
Lord Christ, we see your glory.

O risen Christ, today alive,
amid your Church abiding,
who now your blood and body give,
new life and strength providing,
we join in heavenly company
to sing your praise triumphantly:
Lord Christ, we see your glory!

words: Edmund Morgan (1888-1979)

Celebrant    The Lord be with you.

People      And also with you.

Celebrant    Lift up your hearts.

People      We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant    Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People      It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant    It is truly right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times in all places give you thanks and praise, for you created the world for your own joy and for all that has life, and through the power of the Holy Spirit have made us a new people shining with your own light. Therefore we praise your name and join in the unending hymn of all your saints:

SANCTUS

Hymnal, S-124

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

Holy, loving, creating, and wounded God:

In the beginning, your breath gave us life.

By our own will, we separated from you and chose to live in separation from each other and from your creation.

Yet in your compassion, you chose to become fully human

in your son, Jesus, the Christ,

and you were born, lived, worked, loved, wept, and died as one of us.

Through him, you taught us how to heal our brokenness

and pledged that we will be one with you again.

As one of us, Jesus wept human tears at what he had to suffer.

And, as one of us, he chose to obey your will

and died upon the cross for our sake and for the sake of your creation.

On the night in which he was betrayed, Jesus took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to his friends, saying, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this to remember me."

After supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you. This cup is my blood of the new promise, poured out for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this to remember me."

Celebrant Gracious God, we recall the radiant life, passion and suffering of your Son, Jesus Christ, and his resurrection and ascension into heaven. We look forward to his coming again. Gather us by this holy sacrament and make us one through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and friend.

All Send your Holy Spirit, we pray, upon these gifts of bread and wine.
Send your Holy Spirit upon us, that we may recognize each other as members of the same body,
Christ's hands and feet and heart,
sent for the healing of the world.

Celebrant Open our hearts to you.
Help us to see you everywhere.
Guide us to deliver the kingdom to others
with goodness, generosity, and bold ambition.
Acting as one body, may we astonish you with our love.
Accept these prayers and praises, our creator and source, through Jesus Christ, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, we give honor, glory, and worship. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

remain standing

BCP, page 364

It is traditional at St. Mary's to hold hands during this prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

WORDS AT THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant As we who are followers of Christ break this bread in his name,
We also honor all people of faith.
We pray that one day we all will be one.
