Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE INTERIM TIME all pray together

O Loving God, giver of all good things, be present with us and our vestry as we seek our next Rector. Lovingly guide them as they select a faithful pastor, patient teacher and wise counselor to lead us in the way of your Son. Instill in all of us a vision of a family of faithful servants, that guided by your Holy Spirit, is renewed by hope, united in love, and joyful in pursuing our mission here on earth. In the name of the risen Christ, our mediator and redeemer, we pray. Amen.

FIRST READING Genesis 1:1-11, 13-15, 19-23, 26-28, 31; 2:1-3 all sit

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

And God said, “Let there be a dome in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” So God made the dome and separated the waters that were under the dome from the waters that were above the dome. And it was so. God called the dome Sky. And there was evening and there was morning, the second day.

And God said, “Let the waters under the sky be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear.” And it was so. God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, “Let the earth put forth vegetation: plants yielding seed, and fruit trees of every kind on earth that bear fruit with the seed in it.” And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning, the third day.

And God said, "Let there be lights in the dome of the sky to separate the day from the night; and let them be for signs and for seasons and for days and years, and let them be lights in the dome of the sky to give light upon the earth." And there was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

And God said, "Let the waters bring forth swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the dome of the sky." So God created the great sea monsters and every living creature that moves, of every kind, with which the waters swarm, and every winged bird of every kind. And God saw that it was good. God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the waters in the seas, and let birds multiply on the earth." And there was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

Then God said, "Let us make humankind in our image, according to our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the wild animals of the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth."

So God created humankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them.

God blessed them, and God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the air and over every living thing that moves upon the earth." God saw everything that he had made, and indeed, it was very good. And there was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all their multitude. And on the seventh day God finished the work that he had done, and he rested on the seventh day from all the work that he had done. So God blessed the seventh day and hallowed it, because on it God rested from all the work that he had done in creation.

verses 1-3, before the Gospel; verse 4, after the Gospel

THE HOLY GOSPEL

all stand

Matthew 28:16-20

Response after the Deacon introduces the Gospel Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

Response at the end of the Gospel reading Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Dr. Paula Nesbitt

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,

begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE HOLY COMMUNION

OFFERTORY HYMN

All people that on earth do dwell

Hymnal, #377

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love. And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly,
ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho-san-na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san-na in the high-est.

The people stand or kneel, as the Celebrant continues...

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said:

“Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

standing

All those who wish to are invited to hold hands during this prayer.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.

People We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Today, the last day of Sunday School until September, we'll be revisiting and reviewing Bible stories we've heard, projects we've created and holidays we've celebrated. Visual aids of all sorts including reproductions of biblically themed art masterpieces and the children's own creations will play their memory-jogging roles. The pre-schoolers, however, will hear the story of Old Testament Joshua's assault on the walls of Jericho. Experiential learning of a mild sort will be part of the lesson. Last week the 5th and 6th graders sorted and counted the proceeds of our Heifer fundraising activities. The grand total: $567.75 or, in Heifer language, a cow and a trio of rabbits (or chickens). We're thrilled and thank all whose generosity made this gift possible.

Speaking of gifts: please take time to thank the team of dedicated, creative, loyal Sunday School teachers who made this year so productive. In pre-school, those teachers were Lisa Carey, Victoria Sutton, Cynthia Harper and Angela Latigona; in kindergarten, Alice Allick; in first and second grades Donna Davidson, Gabriella Taylor, and Tatiana Hodapp; in third and fourth grades Nancy Svendsen; in fifth and sixth grades Lisa and Todd Reynolds and in Confirmation Phil Woodworth. Theirs is an important ministry to our families and our parish.

-Nancy Clark, Sunday School Director

YOUTH GROUP

Mission Trip: We are fundraising for the Youth Mission Trip to Marvell, Arkansas. Our goal is to raise $8000.00 this year, and we are confident that you all will be able to support us. Beyond buying delicious baked goods in the courtyard, please donate a larger amount through the Church website: <http://smvsf.org/donation/> Thank you for all of your continued support for our Youth!

VISITING CHOIR FROM CAMBRIDGE

We are very excited to be hosting the Chapel Choir of Selwyn College, Cambridge this summer, when they will be singing a choral Mass for us and combine with our own Parish Choir for an evensong. It will be such a special exchange and a real treat for us to hear one of the absolute finest choirs in the OxBridge system. We are still looking for housing for about ten students for four nights. It doesn't involve much at all- a few meals, a clean bed, and a ride to and from pick up and drop off locations each day. They will be here the nights of July 13-16. If you have a spare room and can take on a couple students, it would be very much appreciated. I can speak from personal experience that this is a wonderful exchange for both the students and the hosts. Please consider this opportunity, and don't hesitate to call with any questions. 415.921.3665 x 310 or email eric@smvsf.org .

LOST IN TRANSLATION- "EXPANDING OUR WORSHIP" NICENE CREED

If you have found your tongue tripping over the words of the Nicene Creed the last few Sundays, there may be a reason. Recently, we have been using liturgy from "Expanding our Worship", a supplemental liturgical resource that is more inclusive in language and expansive in imagery. Included in this liturgy is a revised Nicene Creed that describes Jesus' humanness more closely to the original Greek translation. (e.g. "become truly human" rather than Latin translation of "and was made man.") Another modification conveys the intent of fourth century theologians who proclaimed that the power of God was best acknowledged by saying the Spirit proceeds from God (Father) alone rather than directly from "the son". It was this disagreement in regard to Trinitarian theology that resulted in the break between Eastern and Western churches in 1054 CE. We hope that by reading and saying the Creed as the Councils of 325 and 381CE meant us to affirm it will lead to deeper appreciation of the rich legacy of our faith and public worship.

NEW PARISH DIRECTORY

One of the tasks of the next rector will be getting to know all of the wonderful parishioners at St. Mary's. In order to help with that, we are trying out a new type of Church Directory. The Instant Church Directory will be available online. Members of St. Mary's will be given a membership password that will allow them to log in and manage their directory entry. You will be able to post photos, let everyone know what ministries you are involved with and get in touch with fellow parishioners. This service is free to you. If you prefer, you can choose not to participate. Please visit St. Mary's home page for more information or contact Carla at carla@smvsf.org.

Have you lost something at St. Mary's? Misplaced your sweater, keys, book, hat? Upstairs in our Volunteer Office is a lost and found plastic bin. Please feel free to look in it for your lost items or call the church office at 415.921.3665.
