Deuteronomy 5:12-15

Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the Lord your God commanded you. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. But the seventh day is a sabbath to the Lord your God; you shall not do any work—you, or your son or your daughter, or your male or female slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the resident alien in your towns, so that your male and female slave may rest as well as you. Remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt, and the Lord your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore the Lord your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day.

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 4:5-12

We do not proclaim ourselves; we proclaim Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. For it is the God who said, "Let light shine out of darkness," who has shone in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us. We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not driven to despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed; always carrying in the body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be made visible in our bodies. For while we live, we are always being given up to death for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may be made visible in our mortal flesh. So death is at work in us, but life in you.

Mark 2:23-3:6

Response after the Deacon introduces the Gospel Glory to you, Lord Christ.

One sabbath Jesus and his disciples were going through the grainfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?" And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions." Then he said to them, "The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath."

Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come forward." Then he said to them, "Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?" But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

Response at the end of the Gospel reading Praise to you, Lord Christ.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING, EUCHARISTIC PRAYER B

Celebrant	People
The Lord be with you.	And al - so with you.
Celebrant	People
Lift up your hearts.	We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Service of Holy Communion in C

Ireland

Sung by the Parish Choir

The people stand or kneel, as the Celebrant continues...

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People

We remember his death,

We proclaim his resurrection,

We await his coming in glory;

The Celebrant continues....

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with St. Mary the Virgin and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

standing

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

2018 PLEDGE UPDATE

STEWARDSHIP 2018 UPDATE

At present, 233 St. Mary's households have pledged a total of $814,755 toward our 2018 budget of $902,000. These generous promises place us within sight of the goal of maintaining our programs and ministries and in calling an associate rector to serve St. Mary's, a position we have had for over 70 years. We hope to increase our pledges to avoid the unhappy alternatives of cutting programs or borrowing from our small reserves. We have always met our financial challenges through donations for over 126 years and we will do it now with your help.

We invite all members and friends of St. Mary's to prayerfully consider increasing their pledge, making a pledge, or making a special gift. And we thank all of you who have already made a gift or commitment to God's good work through St. Mary's. For more information about making a gift or a pledge, please go to our website, <http://smvsf.org/donation/>, or call Kevin Bulivant, Finance Manager at (415) 921-3665 x 316.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR MUSICAL

Today's musical presentation, It's Okay to be Different, a unison cantata with piano and flute by Gene Grier, Lowell Everson, and Natalie Sleeth, will replace the Children's homily.

In this musical, children acting as lions and lambs can't get along. The choir director enters in the midst of their frustration and hostility, then guides the children to conflict resolving skills through thoughtful discussion, music, prayer, and feelings about oneself and others. In today's performance, the choir director role is shared by Youth Choir members who act as helpful "angels" to the children. There are seven songs alternating with dialogue which has been slightly modified to fit today's service. 1. Why Can't We Get Along, 2. Listen With Your Heart, 3. It's Okay to be Different, 4. The Lord, God Made Us All, 5. Melody and Harmony, 6. Kum Ba Ya, 7. The Lion and the Lamb. Thank you to our accompanists: Eric Choate, piano and Julia Morris, flute.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

This Sunday is the last day of the 2017-18 Sunday School year. The children have heard stories & used their imagination to travel to ancient lands. On this last day of this Sunday school year, the 1st-6th graders will recall through visual images and classic reproductions the special people, places, and events they've encountered this year. The pre-school & kindergartners will adhere to a St. Mary's tradition and travel back to Jericho, hear the story of Joshua, build a great wall (big cardboard blocks), blow horns, and knock the wall down.

Deep words of gratitude and appreciation are due to the families whose children are a gift and a joy to teach and to our loyal teachers: Lisa Carey, Victoria Sutton, Cynthia Harper, Alice Allick, Donna Davidson, Gabby Taylor, Tatiana Hodapp, Nancy Svendsen, Lisa & Todd Reynolds, Phil Woodworth (confirmation class). We hope you'll make an effort to thank them in person. Each child will to pack their own spiritual suitcase for summer. Be sure to ask them what they packed!

2018 BAPTISMS

A principal sacrament of the Episcopal Church, "Holy Baptism is full initiation by water and the Holy Spirit into Christ's Body, the Church." It is appropriate to be baptized at any age. Because Baptism is a public rite of initiation, the gathered community celebrates with, and welcomes the newly baptized; so Baptism takes place within a regular Sunday worship service on selected Sundays throughout the year.

If you or a member of your family is interested in receiving the Sacrament of Baptism, please plan ahead!

Our designated dates for Baptism have been filling up early. Currently, there is still space available for the following dates of Baptism for this year:

- Sunday, July 22, 2018
- Sunday, September 23, 2018
- Sunday, November 4, 2018

More information about Baptism or to obtain a copy of the Baptism Intake Form can be found on the St. Mary's website or by contacting Natalie Hala, Parish verger and liturgist, at natalie.smvsf.org.

FOOD AND TOILETRY DONATIONS

We, at St. Mary's, are blessed in many ways. Among our blessings is that we have enough food to feed our families. However, not everyone has enough food or basic toiletries to take care of themselves and their families. Our FOOD DONATION BASKET, LOCATED TO THE RIGHT OF THE NARTHEX, IS ALWAYS OPEN AND WELCOMES YOUR DONATIONS. We distribute non-perishable foods and toiletries to several community agencies in S.F. such as Canon Barcus Residence, Delancey St. Apartment Complex, the Lutheran Church on Polk St. and Edward II. If we each bring even one can of food or unused toiletries to our Narthex, we can reach hundreds in our larger community. So be generous, be aware of our community needs and give generously. Christ said 'Feed my sheep' and see a large flock beyond Steiner and Union Streets. If you would like more information or would like to deliver, give Nancy Bryan, Deacon, a call at 415-608-8777.
