Isaiah 25:6-9

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will make for all peoples a feast of rich food, a feast of well-aged wines, of rich food filled with marrow, of well-aged wines strained clear. And he will destroy on this mountain the shroud that is cast over all peoples, the sheet that is spread over all nations; he will swallow up death forever. Then the Lord God will wipe away the tears from all faces, and the disgrace of his people he will take away from all the earth, for the Lord has spoken.

It will be said on that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, so that he might save us. This is the Lord for whom we have waited; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 24

read responsively by half verse

Domini est terra

¹ The earth is the Lord's and all that is in it, *

the world and all who dwell therein.

² For it is he who founded it upon the seas *

and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.

³ "Who can ascend the hill of the Lord? *

and who can stand in his holy place?"

⁴ "Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, *

who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
nor sworn by what is a fraud.

⁵ They shall receive a blessing from the Lord * and a just reward from the God of their salvation."

⁶ Such is the generation of those who seek him, *

of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.

⁷ Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting doors; *

and the King of glory shall come in.

⁸ "Who is this King of glory?" *

"The Lord, strong and mighty, the Lord, mighty in battle."

⁹ Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting doors; *

and the King of glory shall come in.

¹⁰ "Who is he, this King of glory?" *

"The Lord of hosts, he is the King of glory."

SECOND READING

Revelation 21:1-6a

I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying,

"See, the home of God is among mortals. He will dwell with them as their God; they will be his peoples, and God himself will be with them;

he will wipe every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; mourning and crying and pain will be no more, for the first things have passed away."

And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end."

John 11:32-44

Response after the introduction of the Gospel

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Lord, come and see." Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him!" But some of them said, "Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?"

Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upward and said, "Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me." When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING, EUCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For in the multitude of your saints you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company from heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of power and might:
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The people stand or kneel, as the Celebrant continues...

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith.

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him.

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

THE INVITATION

All who desire to know God are invited to receive the consecrated Bread and Wine.

If you prefer, gluten-free wafers are available. Please let the clergy know.

You may also receive a blessing instead of bread and wine by crossing your arms over your chest.

THE COMMUNION OF THE PEOPLE

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING all pray together, standing

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. SENDING OF THE EUCHARISTIC VISITOR *  when needed*

ALL SAINTS DAY & BAPTISM

Today we celebrate All Saints' Day, which is one of the seven principal feasts of the Episcopal church year, and is commonly observed on the first Sunday following November 1. All Saints' Day recognizes "persons of heroic sanctity" among the entire membership of the Christian community. It is also one of the four holy days denoted as especially appropriate for baptisms, therefore, on this day we welcome new Christians through the sacramental baptismal rite, and we are invited to renew our baptismal vows during the service. We are especially pleased to welcome those who will be baptized this morning: Sloane Adams Schwab, daughter of Stephanie and Beau Schwab; Nora Meru Gueldemeister, daughter of Kate and Ralf Gueldemeister;

Theodore John Hallowell, son of Emily and Steve Hallowell; Joseph Whetstone Thompson, son of Pleasant and Thomas Thompson; Isla Beth Demaria, daughter of Elizabeth DeMaria and William Dwight Connolly IV, son of Kate and William Connolly.

SPECIAL MUSIC FOR ALL SAINTS'

Today we have the special treat of Mike Stafford providing prelude and postlude music on the trumpet. Additionally, as part of our vision to integrate the various aspects of our music department, our Parish Choir joins the Children's & Youth Choirs at the 9:00 service for a combined piece of music during Communion. We also have our bell ringers helping to accompany our hymns this morning.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

"We sing a song of the saints of God.."
That's a line from a hymn we'll sing today and that's the theme of today's lessons in all grades. It's a lofty concept for very little children, so for pre-school and kindergarteners we'll focus instead on good people and helpers all around us. In other grades we'll consider saints who lived in ages past including those mentioned in the hymn the children's choir will sing. Who was 'the doctor, the priest, the shepherdess on the green and the saint who was slain by a fierce wild beast? All will be revealed. Of course, there will also be lots of butterflies, a symbol of All Saints Day and marigolds a favorite flower of Day of the Dead and All Saints Day,

SF DEANERY DELEGATES SOUGHT

Why should you serve? St. Mary's is the largest congregation in the Diocese of California and we must have a strong presence in our SF Deanery; we are entitled to 7 delegates and 7 alternates but have only 5 filled. The deaneries are the forums where congregations can voice concerns or question diocesan policies. The SF deanery also makes outreach grants with St. Mary's receiving 2 grants of $1,000 each.

Deanery is where you find and connect with other people of faith who share your values and who want to act. Put simply, it is networking. (Further, if you really want to know the Episcopal Church in all of its glory--from smells and bells at All Saints to dancing the Eucharist at St. Gregory's to street ministry at St. John's, the deanery is where to do it.)

The commitment is not harsh: you're asked to commit to one Saturday morning deanery meeting, 9:00 am to noon, September, November and May and to participate at the annual convention in October. If you're interested or know someone who might be, please contact roulhac@flash.net; delegates are voted on at the parish annual meeting January 27, 2019

COLUMBARIUM

Over the centuries, Christians have laid the dead to rest in churches, where they are remembered and their remains safeguarded. Burial within the church itself, or in the adjacent churchyard was once a common practice. In recent years, cremation with interment of the ashes, rather than burial, has become more common. In this way, the remains of the deceased can reside at the church that played an important part of their lives.

In keeping with this tradition, St. Mary's offer the opportunity for parishioners' ashes and those of their loved ones to repose in the tranquil, contemplative atmosphere of our inner courtyard, the Mary garden. This is a unique opportunity as there are few cemeteries in San Francisco and few columbaria in the out of doors. If you would like more information, please contact jackie@smvsf.org or one of the clergy.

FOOD AND TOILETRY DONATIONS

I want to offer my HUGE THANKS to all of you who have generously filled our Donations Basket located in the Narthex. Each week, the items are checked and then delivered to a variety of agencies that are so thankful for the generosity of St. Mary's parishioners.
