Daniel 12:1-3

who is found written in the book.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God," and since then has been waiting "until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet." For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 13:1-8

Response after the introduction of the Gospel

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!" Then Jesus asked him, "Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down."

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?" Then Jesus began to say to them, "Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birthpangs.”

Response at the end of the Gospel reading

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary
and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,

who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Hymnal, #705

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING, EUCHARISTIC PRAYER A

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company from heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, — hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. —

The people stand or kneel, as the Celebrant continues...

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith.

All Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Thanks and Giving--with the national holiday just days away, it's appropriate that we focus our lessons today on those two words. The Bible stories of Jesus healing 10 lepers only one of whom remembered to give thanks and the story of the poor widow making her small offering will fuel discussions. If that seems weighty rest assured that by the end of Sunday School today you're likely to have a decoration or two for your Thanksgiving celebrations.

Remember there will be no Sunday School classes next Sunday, November 25.

On December 2 we'll launch our Sunday School Advent project. We invite all parents to join us in the Great Room at Sunday School time to learn about and the project and make Reverse Advent Calendar Boxes. In the meantime, please save wine boxes or similar sized boxes for that day.

Errata: Last week's lessons focused on the Moses story.

Moses lived over 5,500 years ago NOT 3,500 years ago as erroneously stated in last week's Sunday School announcements.

YOUTH GROUP

Youth Group is quiet for the next two Sundays, but comes back for a full, fun, and exciting December. More info will be coming soon, but start getting excited for Youth Group participation in the Advent Carol Singalong on December 2, the Peanut Butter Project the afternoon of December 9, and the Annual Youth Group ChristmAdvent White Elephant Gift Exchange on December 16.

Mission Trip Announcement: The Mission Trip this year will be to New Orleans, from June 18-26. All 8th -12th graders are welcome to sign up! More details about the trip will come soon, but feel free to talk to/contact Mike Stafford with questions (mike@smvsf.org).

THANKSGIVING DAY SERVICE

Begin your day of giving thanks with an annual St. Mary's tradition, the Thanksgiving Day Eucharist at 10:00 a.m. on Thursday, November 22. All current and former members of St. Mary's children, youth and Parish Choir are invited to join in singing the Offertory Anthem. It is a perfect time to join as community and be lifted up by the liturgy and music of the day. All monetary offertory gifts will benefit the victims of the California wildfires. The Rev. David Erickson will be preacher.

PLEASE WRITE LETTERS OF GRATITUDE TO OUR FIREFIGHTERS

TODAY as well as on Thursday, November 22 (Thanksgiving Day), we will collect cards and letters of gratitude to the firefighters up north who have put their lives at risk to help save others' lives and homes. Please bring your own cards to church--we will also have some cards and letter writing tools in the courtyard for you to use--and we will collectively send all letters/cards up to the Butte County Fire Department to offer them words of gratitude for working so hard to keep our lives safe.

Forms will also be available in the courtyard this Sunday.

ONLINE GIVING THROUGH BENEVITY

Have you heard of Benevity, the online giving and volunteering platform? Does your employer use Benevity? Many Bay Area employers are turning to Benevity to facilitate and grow their corporate giving programs, and many local companies use Benevity to administer their charitable gift matching programs. Check and see if your employer matches charitable donations made through the platform. The impact of your gift to St. Mary's may be doubled or possibly tripled!
