Micah 5:2-5a

You, O Bethlehem of Ephrathah, who are one of the little clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to rule in Israel, whose origin is from of old, from ancient days.

Therefore he shall give them up until the time when she who is in labor has brought forth; then the rest of his kindred shall return to the people of Israel.

And he shall stand and feed his flock in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God.

And they shall live secure, for now he shall be great to the ends of the earth; and he shall be the one of peace.

CANTICLE 15

The Song of Mary

Magnificat

Jerome Webster Meachen
(b. 1930)

© 1956, Jerome Webster Meachen.

My soul doth magnify the Lord.

And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

For he hath regarded :

the lowliness of his handmaiden:

For behold, from henceforth :

all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me:

and holy is his Name.

And his mercy is on them that fear him:
 throughout all generations.
 He hath shewed strength with his arm:
 he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
 He hath put down the mighty from their seat:
 and hath exalted the humble and meek.
 He hath filled the hungry with good things:
 and the rich he hath sent empty away.

(Second half of chant) He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel :
 As he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 10:5-10

When Christ came into the world, he said, "Sacrifices and offerings you have not desired, but a body you have prepared for me; in burnt offerings and sin offerings you have taken no pleasure. Then I said, 'See, God, I have come to do your will, O God' (in the scroll of the book it is written of me)." When he said above, "You have neither desired nor taken pleasure in sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings" (these are offered according to the law), then he added, "See, I have come to do your will." He abolishes the first in order to establish the second. And it is by God's will that we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

Luke 1:39-45

Response after the introduction of the Gospel

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord."

Response at the end of the Gospel reading

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING, EUCHARISTIC PRAYER II

Enriching our Worship

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We praise you and we bless you, holy and gracious God, source of life abundant. From before time you made ready the creation. Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image, and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and wandered far away; and yet, as a mother cares for her children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

And so this day we join with Saints and Angels in the chorus of praise that rings through eternity, lifting our voices to magnify you as we sing:

SANCTUS

Hurd

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people stand or kneel, as the Celebrant continues...

Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. He yearned to draw all the world to himself yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love. Then, the time came for him to complete upon the cross the sacrifice of his life, and to be glorified by you.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at table with his friends.

He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said:

“Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living sacrifice.

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made. In the fullness of time bring us, with St. Mary the Virgin and all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant This is the true bread which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.

People Whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Join Rev. Marguerite and other parents of St. Mary's to discuss the opportunities and possibilities of ministries with and for families. THE GOOD BOOK CLUB

Our Presiding Bishop is inviting us to dive into The Letter to the Church in Rome (aka "Romans") during Epiphany. His invitation video is here. A suggested schedule of reading Mondays through Saturdays starts January 7th and takes us through the book before Lent. For the perennially curious, additional resources are also suggested. Join St. Mary's clergy in this adventure, exploring St. Paul's loving letter about how the newly developing Christian community - and we - can experience and share God's grace.

ONLINE GIVING THROUGH BENEVITY

Have you heard of Benevity, the online giving and volunteering platform? Does your employer use Benevity? Many Bay Area employers are turning to Benevity to facilitate and grow their corporate giving programs, and many local companies use Benevity to administer their charitable gift matching programs. Check and see if your employer matches charitable donations made through the platform. The impact of your gift to St. Mary's may be doubled or possibly tripled!

VESTRY NOMINATED SLATE

The vestry nominated slate for 2022, by acclamation, includes the following people:

EVERY WEDNESDAY

Consider enriching your spiritual life by including one or both of two weekly offerings at St. Marys:

- Join us on Tuesday mornings from 10:15 to 11:15 a.m. in the Chapel for Centering Prayer, a time to rest in God while silently being one in community.
- Join us Wednesdays at 12:10 p.m. for a midweek Eucharist. We are encouraging those who attend to bring lunch from home or the deli and gather together after the service for lunch in the office room.

POCKET PRAYER CARDS

We gather at St. Mary's Church on Sundays and for special events as we pray, sing, share Communion and fellowship together. As we leave St. Mary's, we begin a new week of work, play and all the parts of our busy lives. We need to remember, though, that God is with us, not just on Sundays, but every day and night, always. And to remind us of God's love and presence with us, we will have available "Pocket Prayers" to carry with you in your pocket, post somewhere at home or to share with a friend or stranger. They will be available on the Narthex table, and at the Newcomer's table following the Sunday services.

Any questions or suggestions, contact Deacon Nancy Bryan at nhbsf@me.com

FOOD AND TOILETRY DONATIONS

I want to offer my HUGE THANKS to all of you who have generously filled our Donations Basket located in the Narthex. Each week, the items are checked and then delivered to a variety of agencies that are so thankful for the generosity of St. Mary's parishioners. The recent donations of cereals, canned goods and toiletries were delivered to Nina Pickerell, Deacon at Grace Cathedral, for the families she serves in the Bayview Hunter's Point district. Other deliveries have supported St. Paulus Lutheran Church on Polk St., Canon Barcus Family Residence, Delancey Street Residents and Edward II. Keep that basket filled!

Thank you, Deacon Nancy Bryan
