Isaiah 6:1-8

In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lofty; and the hem of his robe filled the temple. Seraphs were in attendance above him; each had six wings: with two they covered their faces, and with two they covered their feet, and with two they flew. And one called to another and said: "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of his glory." The pivots on the thresholds shook at the voices of those who called, and the house filled with smoke. And I said: "Woe is me! I am lost, for I am a man of unclean lips, and I live among a people of unclean lips; yet my eyes have seen the King, the Lord of hosts!" Then one of the seraphs flew to me, holding a live coal that had been taken from the altar with a pair of tongs. The seraph touched my mouth with it and said: "Now that this has touched your lips, your guilt has departed and your sin is blotted out." Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" And I said, "Here am I; send me!"

PSALM 138

read responsively by half verse

Confitebor tibi

¹ I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart; *

before the gods I will sing your praise.

² I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your Name, *

because of your love and faithfulness;

³ For you have glorified your Name * and your word above all things.

- ⁴ When I called, you answered me; *
you increased my strength within me.
- ⁵ All the kings of the earth will praise you, O Lord, *
when they have heard the words of your mouth.
- ⁶ They will sing of the ways of the Lord, *
that great is the glory of the Lord.
- ⁷ Though the Lord be high, he cares for the lowly; *
he perceives the haughty from afar.
- ⁸ Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you keep me safe; *
you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall save me.
- ⁹ The Lord will make good his purpose for me; *
O Lord, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your hands.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15:1-11

I would remind you, brothers and sisters, of the good news that I proclaimed to you, which you in turn received, in which also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold firmly to the message that I proclaimed to you-- unless you have come to believe in vain.

For I handed on to you as of first importance what I in turn had received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the scriptures, and that he was buried, and that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the scriptures, and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers and sisters at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have died. Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unfit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me has not been in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them-- though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. Whether then it was I or they, so we proclaim and so you have come to believe.

Luke 5:1-11

Response after the Deacon introduces the Gospel Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.

THE AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,

God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made,
 of one Being with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
 he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again
 in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE HOLY COMMUNION

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING, PRAYER A all stand

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For you are the source of light and life, you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

After the Sanctus the People stand or kneel as able, as the Celebrant continues...

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues....

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

THE INVITATION

OUR GLOBAL CONCERNS TODAY

Our Baptismal Covenant calls upon us to respect the dignity of every human being. Last Friday, February 8, was the annual International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking. Human trafficking is considered modern day slavery, and there are more slaves today (estimated at around 21 million) than at any time in history. Trafficking takes on many forms and is occurring right in our own backyard. The Safer California Foundation identifies California as harboring 3 of the FBI's highest sex trafficking areas in the nation: Los Angeles, San Diego and San Francisco. SUNDAY SCHOOL

Once again, we'll be covering different stories in different grades today. We're trying to catch up to the Gospel stories of the season, but actually might be falling further behind in some grades. You'll see why.

The pre-school children will hear the story of Jesus separated from his parents, then found in the great Temple in Jerusalem confounding the elders with his wisdom. They'll also hear stories and do activities relating to things Jesus might have learned and done when he was a little boy in Nazareth. The first and second graders will meet with Jesus and John the Baptist on the banks of the Jordan River. They'll also recount what they know about their own baptism.

If these notes seem familiar its because these were last week's stories but flipped in those two grade levels.

The 3rd-6th graders, meeting in their separate classrooms, continue to be intrigued by Old Testament Bible stories. Who knew? They're likely to meet Jacob and Esau, Solomon, Esther and Ruth, Elijah and Isaiah and might even figure what "old as Methusela" means.

YOUTH GROUP

TODAY: Middle School Youth Group will meet from 5:30-7:30 in the Great Room. Come for friends, food, games, and more discussion on our Journeys of Faith. Friends are always welcome!

February 17: No Youth Group!

March 3: Youth Group Adventure Night: North Beach and Chinatown Scavenger Hunt (weather permitting)! Join us for one of the best Adventure Nights of the Year! All 6th-12th graders are invited to meet at the church at 5:30, head over to North Beach for fun and food, and then return to church by 7:30. Bring some spending money for snacks in North Beach. Don't be late; we'll leave promptly.

THE PAST YEAR IN JUSTICE

AT ST. MARY'S

The prophet Micah asks, "What does the Lord ask of you but to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?" In Micah's exhortation, justice is not something you seek or pray for. Justice is something you live. In the past year, over sixty members of our parish have joined together to live our individual calls to justice. For a full report on the work of St. Mary's Justice Ministries in 2018, go to our web page: <https://smvsf.org/justice-ministry>.

THE GOOD BOOK CLUB

Our Presiding Bishop is inviting us to dive into The Letter to the Church in Rome (aka "Romans") during Epiphany. You can watch his invitation video at <http://www.goodbookclub.org/>.

A suggested schedule of reading Mondays through Saturdays that started January 7th and takes us through the book before Lent. For the perennially curious, additional resources are also suggested. Join St. Mary's clergy in this adventure, exploring St. Paul's loving letter about how the newly developing Christian community - and we - can experience and share God's grace.

REGISTRATION IS OPEN!

PARISH RETREAT (MAY 17-19)

The Parish Retreat is a much-loved tradition and a time for parishioners of all ages, from all services, to come together and enjoy fun and fellowship. You can engage in hiking, eating, swimming in the saltwater pool, tasting cheese and wines, worshipping in the Ranch's lovely historic chapel, dropping into quiet contemplation, exploring the town of Healdsburg, doing crafts, playing games, s'mores by the campfire, and yes, some fellowship and community! Do it all or just enjoy sitting with a book, basking in the beauty of the wine country. The registration costs include comfortable lodging, all meals, crafts and other supervised activities for the kids, and entertainment for all. Reserve your space NOW by registering on the parish website.

ST. MARY MAGDALENE SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The St. Mary Magdalene Scholarship Fund was created by a generous bequest of a long-time parishioner of St. Mary the Virgin. The gift of $1 million is to endow a fund to be used for college scholarships for young women from the parish.

The principal of the fund is to remain in perpetuity with the income each year being used for scholarships. This is the third year of scholarship awards. We anticipate that approximately $40,000 will be available for distribution among the applicants.

Scholarships will be available to young women attending college for the 2019-2020 school year. Young women from St. Mary the Virgin who are entering college or continuing their college education in the fall of 2019 are eligible to apply.

In keeping with the terms of the bequest, the criteria for the awards will include such factors as participation and involvement at St. Mary's over the years, academic merit and achievement including outside activities while in high school and college, and need.

The recipients will be selected by the Rector upon the recommendation of the Vestry, with input from the youth group leaders, Sunday school director and youth acolyte coordinator who have worked with these young women over the years.

There are 2 application forms which can be found on the St. Mary's website—one form for new applicants and one form for "repeat" applicants who received scholarships last year. In order for the selection committee to determine financial need, a copy of the parents' latest filed Form 1040 (summary pages) will be due along with the application.

Applications will be due March 1, 2019.

If you have any questions, please contact Martha Daetwyler at mldaetwyler@earthlink.net.
