Hail thee, festival day!

Hymnal, #225

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia.

THE COLLECT FOR PURITY

all say together

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant God be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, who on this day taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment in all things, and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Genesis 11:1-9

Now the whole earth had one language and the same words. And as they migrated from the east, they came upon a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves; otherwise we shall be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth." God came down to see the city and the tower, which mortals had built. And God said, "Look, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. Come, let us go down, and confuse their language there, so that they will not understand one another's speech." So God scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. Therefore it was called Babel, because there the God confused the language of all the earth; and from there the God scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth.

SECOND READING

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs-- in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine." But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' "

THE HOLY GOSPEL

John 14:8-17, 25-27

Response after the Deacon introduces the Gospel

Philip said to Jesus, "Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied." Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, 'Show us the Father'? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you. "I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid."

Response at the end of the Gospel reading The Gospel of Our Savior.
Please remain standing until the Gospel Book is returned to the altar. Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE BAPTISMAL COVENANT

standing

Celebrant Dear People of God: Christ, the Redeemer, sealed the Paschal mystery of his death and resurrection in his ascension and gift of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost. That same Spirit continues to give birth to God's people by the waters of Baptism. I call upon you, therefore, to reaffirm your baptismal covenant.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of the earth, and of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son and given new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, may live in the power of the resurrection until we dwell with you in the life to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

all sit

Leader In faith, we pray to God who breathes life onto the earth.

We pray for all people who know you and seek you.

People Send down your Spirit and fire us with your love.

Leader We pray for the world and all who work for justice and peace.

We pray especially for (N).

People Send down your Spirit and transform us with hope.

Leader We pray for all creation and every living thing.

People Send down your Spirit and fill us with grace.

Leader We pray for the lost, the forgotten, and those in any kind of need. We pray for those who have asked for our prayers, especially (N) and for others we name either aloud or in our hearts.

People Send down your Spirit and heal us with your goodness.

Leader We pray for those who have died, and all those who grieve. We pray for (N) and for others we name either aloud or in our hearts.

People Send down your Spirit and comfort us with your light.

Leader We give thanks for the many blessings of our lives, including (N) and for others we name either aloud or in our hearts.

Celebrant Creator God and Giver of Life, receive our prayers; hear our hearts' deep yearnings, yet to be formed by words. Give us the courage to yield ourselves, all that we are and have yet to become, to the transforming motion of your Holy Spirit, and carry out in us and through us your work of new creation. This we pray in the name of Jesus Christ, the risen and living one. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Enriching our Worship, Prayer 3

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea when it burst out from the womb; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind. Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

SANCTUS

Service of Holy Communion in C
sung by the Parish Choir

Ireland

The people stand or kneel, as the Celebrant continues...

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise. Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your holy reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave it to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said:

"Drink this, all of you: this cup is the new Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so, remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Celebrant and People

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory!

The Celebrant continues

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ. Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice and love. Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with [blessed _____, and] all your people into the joy of our true eternal home.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Celebrant and People

Blessed are you now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

THE LORD'S PRAYER

standing

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

WELCOME VISITORS and GUESTS

June 9, 2019

We are delighted that you chose to worship with us.

We hope to be in an ongoing and holy relationship with you in the days and years to come.

Let us know how we may be of service to you.

May God bless you and all whom you love.

Please fill out a welcome card and put it in the offering plate, or give it to one of the ushers or clergy. We are happy to add you to our email list so you can keep up with the programs, activities, and news of St. Mary's.

Restrooms are located at the end of the breezeway next to Fowler Hall.

St. Mary's Nursery is located off the same breezeway.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Happy Birthday Church! If you didn't know that Pentecost is sometimes called 'the birthday of the church' ask a Sunday School student. After today's Pentecost-based lessons they'll be able to teach and explain. They'll also explain why red is the color of the day and flames and doves are the symbols.

The Pre-School children will also have Pentecost lessons, but because this is the last Sunday of the 2018-19 Sunday School year, they'll also have our traditional pre-school end of the year lesson about Joshua and the battle of Jericho. Why that? Because it involves building a cardboard box wall, blowing horns, and knocking that wall down. Several times. Tah Dah Summer begins.

On this last day of the Sunday School year, please take time to seek out the creative, loyal, always inspired Sunday School teachers who taught your children this year. Say special prayers for the dedication of these teachers. They're as good as it gets.

TODAY

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Today we will renew our commitment to the Baptismal Covenant at the 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. services, the cornerstone of our faith, and witness a Baptism at the 11:00 a.m. service. We will also celebrate and thank our Sunday school staff and the Parish choirs. Please join us to commemorate this special day as we "go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit" and carry on the message of Pentecost, to bring God's unconditional love to a world that longs for healing words and acts of compassion.

SUMMER SCHEDULE BEGINS JUNE 16

Summer is here and we return to our summer schedule with Sunday services at 8:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. beginning on Sunday, June 16. We will return to the academic year schedule of 3 services at 8:00 a.m., 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. on Sept. 8.

THANK YOU!!

Huge thanks go to everyone who made our first Parish Fair and participation in the Union St. Fair a wonderful success. Under the inspired leadership of Molly Irwin, with “heavy lifting” by the Young Professionals, generous help (and delicious cookies) by dozens of members, St. Mary’s celebrated and expanded our community life in new and exciting ways. Rumors abound that strategies are being refined to ensure that next year’s Parish Fair will be even better. Amazing!!

JUNE IS PRIDE MONTH...

And we will honor LGBTQ+ champions each week during our Prayers of the People.

Today we give thanks for two warriors whose brief bios are taken from Wikipedia.

Cathay Williams (September 1844 – 1893) was born a slave and served as support staff for the Union Army starting when she was 17. In 1866 she enlisted in the United States Army under the pseudonym William Cathay in Missouri and was posted to New Mexico. She was the first African-American woman to enlist, and the only documented to serve in the United States Army posing as a man. Mark Bingham (Mar. 20, 1970 - Sept. 11, 2001) gave his life storming the cockpit of United flight 93 to ensure that the plane could not be used to crash into either the US Capital or the White House. An entrepreneur, rugby player and filmmaker, Bingham was one of four passengers who led the charge to retake the plane. The feature length documentary “The Rugby Player” tells Bingham’s story and show his mother’s emergence as an advocate for the LGBT community.

OPEN CATHEDRAL LUNCH BAGS

SUNDAY, JUNE 16

We will be making sandwiches following the 10:00 a.m. service. We will need no more than 8 people to make sandwiches and assemble lunch bags. Please join us in the upstairs copy room to lend us your hands. We will be finished by 11:45 a.m. The SF Night Ministry coordinates this service. Attendees are folks who are in transitional housing and gather to sing, pray and receive communion gathered as one in God’s presence. Questions? Call Deacon Nancy Bryan: 415-608-8777. Thank you for your help!

BLUEGRASS & BBQ

Please join us at the 10:00 a.m. service on June 23 for a bluegrass Eucharist service to celebrate summer preceding our parish BBQ after the service.

BAPTISM AT ST. MARY'S

A principal sacrament of the Episcopal Church, "Holy Baptism is full initiation by water and the Holy Spirit into Christ's Body, the Church" and it is appropriate to be baptized at any age. Because baptism is a public service of initiation, the gathered community celebrates with, and welcomes the newly baptized within a worship service.

The remaining 2019 dates for Baptism are as follows:

Sunday, July 28, 2019
